ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Requirements	Guidance
1. Evidence should total at least 60 minutes of interpreting and must include one mandatory observation lasting 20 minutes.
2. Minimum of four samples.
3. In one-to-one and groups situations.
4. All samples will be at least ten minutes in length.
5. Evidence of simultaneous and consecutive interpreting into both first and second languages should be shown.	Consecutive interpreting can be cross referenced with INT6B1. Evidence will need to be sustained and on the same topic. Example: BSL>English>BSL: A candidate interprets a BSL user 'dictating' a letter in chunks and voices it for a third party to type up in English (one-way). The completed letter is then read back (in chunks) by the third party for the candidate to sign for the BSL user to verify (two-way).

6. Use of technology, e.g. microphone or videophone, for at least one sample.	Candidates are able to cross reference evidence with INT6B1. Candidates need to be able to demonstrate awareness of use of technology. Please see guidance from INT6B1 Assessment Specification.
7. Evidence should demonstrate the interpreter's full command of both languages.	The ability to pick up the speaker's tone, emphasis, pace and therefore attitude, in order to convey meaning to BSL users, and vice versa.

Knowledge and understanding

Knowledge and understanding is not assessed separately, but through achievement of the assessment criteria.

- K1 The process of interpreting from and into two languages.
- K2 The languages in which you interpret, with the ability to function at Level 6 for your first language; and Level 6 for your other language. (See the listening/reception and speaking/production units of the National Language Standards for performance and knowledge requirements.)
- K3 The cultures of the languages in which you interpret and their conventions for communication, and the implications of these aspects for the delivery of two-way interpreting assignments.
- K4 Register (frozen, formal, informal, colloquial and intimate) and the transfer of register from one language into the other and techniques to use when the registers of the language users do not match each other.
- K5 The modes of consecutive and simultaneous interpreting.

- K6 Techniques to achieve effective communication in a two-way exchange.
- K7 Techniques to manage the process of communication if it breaks down in one or more of the following ways:
- You need to check on meaning.
 - The degree of complexity, technicality or emotional charge is beyond your ability to deal with it.
 - An apparent lack of understanding or misunderstanding hinders communication between the source and target language users.
 - Your position and/or that of the users hinders communication.
 - The users' conduct prevents you from interpreting effectively.
 - The users are communicating too fast or too slowly.
 - The users communicate all at once or fail to observe appropriate turn-taking.
- K8 The role of the interpreter and the principles of professional practice.
- K9 The domain(s) in which you interpret and how to work with professionals in your field.
- K10 The use of technology, health and safety requirements and how to trouble-shoot when there is a technical problem.
- K11 Techniques of taking notes when interpreting in consecutive mode.
